ABOUT THE STATE BAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Grandy celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home in Middlebury Oct. 29. A large attendance had been planned for, but owing to the influenza quarantine only members of the immediate family were present.

The house of Claude Somers in West Barnet was destroyed by fire one day last week. Two years ago his barn was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. The structure was rebuilt and last summer the new barn was blown to the ground by the tornado.

Vermonters named in the 41 appointments announced by the war department Oct. 29 were: Second lieutenant, engineer, Leon H. Powers, East Burke; second lieutenant, sanitary, Charles N. Valade, Burlington; second lieutenant, air service, aeronautics, Lyle C. Churchill, · Londonderry.

Miss Roa Eaton, formerly of Bristol, is to make her debut in America with the Metropolitan Opera Co. just before the holidays. Miss Eaton was born in Bristol and passed most of her childhood there. Her father was Calvin Eaton, of that town, and her mother was Miss Emma Jane Bissonette, of Hinesburg.

The home of the late ex-Gov. Stewart in Middlebury was entered last week and ransacked from top to bottom, it was discovered last Sunday. Cigarette stubs were scattered all over the house and there were evidences that the intruders had enjoyed a lunch. Nothing of value was found missing. The property is owned by Gov. Stewart's daughter, Mrs. Swift, of Grosse Point.

Joseph Carafano of Rutland, a longtime employe of the Howe Scale Co of Rutland, was arrested Sunday at St. Johnsbury by Deputy Sheriff Pascal Ricci and it is expected that war-rants will be issued for others associated with the plant as result of the alleged discovery of the stealing by the whole-sale of brass and other metal, finished lumber and other valuable material owned by the company.

Lawrence Leonard, son of Eugene S. Leonard of Bellows Falls, chairman of the Windham county draft board, has passed the physical examination for entrance to the United States military academy at West Point. He graduated from the Bellows Falls high school last Two older brothers are in the service, one with the signal corps in France and the other in the S. A. T. R. at Dartmouth college.

Henry Clifford, five, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Clifford of Franklin, N. H., and grandson of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Tucker of Brattleboro, is in the eye and ear infirmary in Boston for treatment to save the sight of an eye injured Oct. 14 at his home when a BB shot from an air gun in the hands of a playmate him. The wound produced instant hemorrhage and a cataract has already formed, which will have to be

Got Three Bears in Three Minutes.

Will P. Robinson, a Spanish American war veteran, captured three bears in about three minutes one evening in Wilstack mountain in Wilmington, and simbullet caused instant death. The smoke had no sooner cleared away from the spot when bear No. 2 showed up and was in like manner summarily on the scene and was severely wounded, but succeeded in crawling away. Before called for. Mr. Robinson could reload his gun the the flashlight refused to work. The hunter, who always carried a reserve bulb, deliberately replaced the old one and flashed it up the tree, and found Mrs. Bruin in the same position. One shot from his gun brought her crashing to the earth.

Mr. Robinson returned to Wilmington for help and at about midnight succeeded n unloading his game in front of the Childs' tavern, where a large crowd was in walting to view the trophies, The female bear weighed over 250 pounds and the younger ones averaged about 100 pounds.

"Please Pass the Butter" Butterfat is quoted to-day at 67c per pound. Butter is high and is going higher right along, because it is the most necessary and valuable feed fat in existence. The government his asked for 60 per cent of the butter in storage to be set saids for the boys in the army and navy. (This means that the rest of us will get along with what is left.) This means that the man with even one or two cows is interested in a Cream Separator as never before. It is not right to waste a sincle course of butterfat when it is needed so badly by our boys in the army and navy, as well as ourselves. Those never was a better or more profitable time for a man, even with one or two cows, to buy a Cream Separator, for you need a new
